State-owned utility Namibia Power Corporation (NamPower) has issued a tender for six utility-scale solar PV IPPs and an EPC procurement notice for a large-scale battery energy storage system as Windhoek advances its plans to significantly increase on-grid renewable energy.

State-owned utility Namibia Power Corporation (NamPower) has issued a tender for six utility-scale solar PV IPPs and an EPC procurement notice for a large-scale battery energy storage system as Windhoek advances its plans to significantly increase on-grid renewable energy.

Let's cut to the chase: In December 2023, Windhoek made history by launching Namibia's first grid-scale energy storage system. This 54MWh project in Erongo Region isn't just a battery installation - it's a game-changer for a country where 70% of electricity was imported pre-2023 [1]. Imagine a.

In 2017, the Municipal Council of Windhoek approved the City of Windhoek Renewable Energy policy. The policy aims to guide the development of renewable energy and increase its share in the city's electricity mix. One of the outcomes of this policy is the ongoing 25MW Solar PV project, which is.

The City of Windhoek plans to construct a 25-megawatt (MW) solar photovoltaic

(PV) plant as part of its broader commitment to diversify its energy sources and reduce its carbon footprint. According to initial projections mooted in 2021, the project implementation was expected to cost at least N$420.
